Science Symposium November 17-19, Tin-Wis Resort

Sponsored By Clayoquot Alliance for Research, Education and Training, a partnership between the Clayoquot Biosphere Trust and the University of Victoria.

The science symposium will be a chance to exchange information about ongoing projects in the Clayoquot Sound region and facilitate discussion on important issues to local residents. Everyone is welcome to attend free of charge. The symposium opens on Sunday November 17 with a day of local project updates, followed by presentations and discussion groups on forestry and aquaculture on Monday and Tuesday. The symposium will conclude Tuesday evening with a celebratory feast.
